グローバルな挑戦と東アジアの対応

冷戦の終焉以降、世界はますます小さくなってしまっています。グローバル化は貿易や金融市場、教育、文化間交流、人権、環境といった分野で複雑な協力のための合意を生み出しています。しかしグローバル化は地球規模の問題に対して、国家と国家、国際機関や、市民社会、民間企業等の新しいアクターが発声し参画することのできる公共空間を押し広げてきました。その影響は世界のそれぞれの地域によって異なっています。

東アジアはおもにASEAN、日本、中国、韓国からなりますが、他の近隣諸国を除外するわけではありません。この地域はグローバル化によって急速な経済成長、貿易関係の拡大、人権、社会経済分野における緊密な協力関係の進展といった恩恵を得てきました。同時に、東アジア全体として、冷戦の負の遺産により、持続的な制度的枠組みやイデオロギーを依然として構築できずにいます。しかし、近年、東アジア共同体やより良い地域ガバナンスの形成に向けたイニシアチブが活性化していることは大きな動きでもあります。

2009年度の国連大学グローバル・セミナーでは、ますますグローバル化が東アジア地域にもたらした影響と挑戦を取り上げ、次に、個々の国々、地域機構あるいはグローバルな機関がどのようなイニシアチブを取っているかを検証します。さらに、東アジア地域が直面する新旧の政治経済的な課題に光をあてる上に、それらを取り組む上での障害や新しい試み、東アジアとしてのイデオロギーを育む上での市民社会やメディアの役割にも目を向けていきます。

このセミナーでは、日本の、中国、韓国、オーストラリア、ドイツから著名な専門家及び実務家を講演者として迎え、現在の状況をどのように見ているのか、また、どのように今後の課題に取り組んでいくかについて講演していただきます。その後、講演者も交えながら、参加者同士が意見交換を行うグループ討議やワークショップなど、多様な企画が用意されています。このセミナーが、東アジアという文脈から、現在進行中の世界的で深刻な経済的危機について考える契機となることを期待しています。

Global Challenges and East Asian Responses

The world has grown closer together since the end of the Cold War. Globalization has brought about complex cooperative arrangements in many areas including trade, finance, education, culture, human rights and the environment. It has also opened a wider space for new actors such as international organizations, civil society and business to articulate their views on global issues along with the nation states. The impacts and consequences of globalization obviously vary in different world regions.

East Asia, encompassing mainly, but not exclusively, the ASEAN countries, Japan, China and South Korea has clearly benefited from globalization and has experienced rapid economic growth, deepening and widening trade relations, an increase in interaction among people, and closer social, economic, and political relations. At the same time, East Asia as a region still suffers from legacies of the Cold War and has yet to forge a regional community with a viable institutional framework and identity. We have, however, witnessed in recent years encouraging initiatives for an East Asian community building and better regional governance.

The UNU Global Seminar 2009 will first address the impacts and challenges of globalization for East Asia and then review initiatives taken by individual countries, regional and global organizations to responses to them. The seminar programme is designed to study and examine the major political and economic issues facing the region today. It will also address the obstacles to and new endeavors for regional cooperation, and the importance of civil society and media in fostering a shared identity in East Asia. The programme consists of lectures by distinguished experts from Japan, China, South Korea, and Australia, and discussion and exchange among participants and lecturers. We hope that the seminar will offer a valuable occasion to consider, in the context of East Asia, the consequences of the on-going global economic crisis.
