

UNU-KNCU Global Seminar 2009

5-10 July, Korea UNESCO Peace Center

“Model UNESCO Conference on Sustainable Development”

Organized by United Nations University (UNU)
And Korean National Commission for UNESCO (KNCU)

Sponsored by the Ministry of Education, Science and Technology Korea

1. General Information

Since 2003, the Korean National Commission for UNESCO (KNCU) has had the pleasure of hosting UNU-KNCU Global Seminar with the United Nations University (UNU), offering students and young professionals a unique opportunity to better understand the global issues that are of great importance to the United Nations, its member states and their citizens. A diverse group of participants, as well as distinguished international scholars and practitioners, will engage in lively dialogue and active exchange of ideas and opinions. By bridging differences in the international community, the seminar aims to ensure a more peaceful and viable future.

The UNU-KNCU Global Seminar 2009 will feature two keynote lectures providing an overview of the seminar's theme and two special lectures addressing work in an international organization. In addition to attending lectures, participants will gather in commissions to draft a commission resolution and prepare a model UNESCO resolution to be given on the final day of the seminar. Other seminar activities include cultural field trip and international culture night.
